DINNER PROGRAM – OCTOBER 21

This month's program will be a panel discussion on best practices across the supply chain. Three panelists, Bill Dempsey, MillerCoors; Cory Ann Holst, Leprino Foods; and Ron Schnur, CPSM, WhiteWave Foods, will share supply chain experiences and respond to your comments and questions about value based supply chains.

Bill Dempsey is the Director of Procurement and Strategic Sourcing for MillerCoors. Bill's team is responsible for procurement activities including strategic sourcing, contract management, supplier management and operational purchasing for $3.5 billion of packaging and indirect material category spend. Prior to MillerCoors, Bill was a Managing Consultant for IBM Business Consulting Services/PwC Consulting in their supply chain/procurement practice. Bill led procurement transformation projects for world class organizations in the Entertainment, Consumer Products, Healthcare, Manufacturing and Financial sectors. In addition, Bill has experience as an Operations Engineer at UPS and Roadway Package (now Fedex Ground); and has worked as an Industrial Engineering Manager for HB Maynard. Bill earned his MBA and a BS in Industrial Engineering from the University of Pittsburgh.

Cory Ann Holst is Director of Product Management and Logistics for Leprino Foods, the largest, privately held mozzarella manufacturer in the United States, and based in Denver. Supply Chain is Cory Ann's passion. She has a B.S. degree in Business Logistics from Pennsylvania State University and over 20 years of experience in Supply Chain. Cory started in the chemical industry, moved into the consumer packaged goods industry, then into customer logistics to focus on solutions that benefit both parties. Leprino Foods is now implementing SAP. The business is growing domestically and internationally.

Ronald Schnur, CPSM is Vice President of Dairy Supply and Operations for WhiteWave Foods. In this position he is responsible for providing strategic, financial and operational leadership for the 100-person dairy supply chain and operations team. He also provides direct support for the Horizon Organic Business Unit. Ron received his bachelor's degree from Indiana University — Bloomington and his MBA degree from Penn State. He has served as a board member of the National Minority Supplier Development Council as well as its Corporate Plus Committee. He serves on the Penn State MBA Advisory Board and has served as a curriculum advisor for Penn State's supply chain management program. In addition, Ron has served on the Conference Board Procurement Council, Purchasing Roundtable and the Denver Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. He is the 2006 recipient of the Robert Pashek award from Penn State for contributions made to enhancing the logistics and supply chain management profession. Ron has held multiple procurement, strategic and supply leadership positions.
